CHRISTMAS GERMAN

Guests From a Distance to Be in Richmond for This Brilliant Society Event.

The fashionable event of this even ng is the second dance of the Rich mond, German Club, to be given in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel at 9 o'clock. This is the Christmas german of the club, and numbers of old mempers attend only this dance during the entire season. A great many guests from a distance will be in Richmond o be present at this entertainment, and he decorations will be unusually attractive and interesting. A seated suppor will be served at 11 o'clock. Colonel Jo Lane Stern will lead the german, dancing with Miss May Mer-cer, a debutante of this season.

Dinner at the Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Buchanan were hosts at a lovely dinner given at the Country Club of Virginia Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Harriet Buchanan, who is spend-ing the winter in New York City. Covers were laid for eighteen guests, and a miniature Christmas tree, laden with gifts for those present, and hung with tinsel and bright-colored ornaments, formed a most unique and ef-fective centrepiece. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and their guests remained for the informal hop at the club fol-
